There, Chubbett appeared on the stage, and, in the presence of a large audience, gave a stirring address. He said that the cause of the colored people was a noble one, and that he was proud to be associated with them. He said that he was proud to be associated with them, and that he was proud to be associated with them. He said that he was proud to be associated with them, and that he was proud to be associated with them.

New England Women's Association.
 Service Day - The New England Women's Association held a service day on Monday, June 10, at the home of Mrs. J. W. White, 100 North Main St. The service was held in the afternoon, and Mrs. Mary A. Greenleaf, of
